1. A large Greek guerrilla camp exists near Smederevo in Serbia. The site covers approximately 3 square miles and contains about 20,000 Greek refugees, including those wounded in fighting. The majority of inmates, however, are families and children of Greek guerrilla fighters. The area is also used as an internment and labor camp for Greek Communist opponents.

25X1A6a comment: There is no indication as to their origin.)

25X1X62. inmates are well treated, and have Greek schools, a courthouse, theatre and movies. They can purchase wine and beer and have their own vegetable gardens in the area. All are compelled to attend all Communist lectures and meetings, and may not leave the area under any circumstances.

3. The Serb population of the region is forbidden to enter the camp area. All personal contacts between Yugoslavs and Greeks is strictly prohibited.
